THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Petitioner(s) have made a good faith effort to contact the parents of the proposed protected minor and/or any other person or agency having the care, custody, and control of the minor, or, in the alternative, has/have presented evidence that such contact would put the welfare of the minor in jeopardy or is impractical under the circumstances.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that if the court determined that advance notice was not required because the protected minor would have been exposed to an immediate risk of physical, emotional, educational and/or financial harm had the Guardian(s) provided notice, the Guardian(s) shall notify the persons entitled to notice without undue delay, but not later than 48 hours after the appointment of a temporary guardian or not later than 48 hours after he/she discovers the existence, identity and location of the persons entitled to notice. If the Guardian(s) fail(s) to provide such notice, the court may terminate the temporary guardianship.
